

Dear Friend,

I hope summer finds you well. I find myself in the middle of training for the inaugural A Just Harvest Restoring Unity Across Communities 5K, which will take place July 23 at 8:00 am at Willye B. White Park (stepoff at 9:00 am).

Working up an athletic sweat has me working up sweat for other things – for violence in our city, for the urgent need to radically reform our criminal justice system, and for feeding hungry people.

Please consider joining me in this “sweat-making” by investing in A Just Harvest.

We’ve set a summer fundraising target of $25,000 to bridge the lean June – August months and could greatly use your support. Your contribution of $2,500, $500 or $100 would be a huge help.

We will be posting regular updates on our campaign – “Match Marilyn Madness” – which you can find at:

We would also be thrilled to have your participation at our 5K. The course runs north from Willye B. White Park, up Lake Michigan to Clark Square Park in Evanston, and then back to Willye B. White (register at www.ajustharvest.org/5k).

Despite the struggles we witness daily, it’s been an amazing year of coming together, building relationships and seeking solutions. And we have an even better fall lining up.

We look forward to your continued partnership.

Wishing you blessings,
